Antiphons of the English Translation of the Roman Missal, Third Edition
Where in congruence, verses according to the Graduale Romanum, tr. New American Bible

* * *

Rubrics from the Roman Missal for Ordinary Time:

6. Two antiphons are provided for Communion, the first from the Psalms, and the second for the most part from the Gospel. One or the other may be selected, as circumstances suggest, but preference should be given to an antiphon that is in harmony with the Gospel of the Mass.

Tereramente

The musical score is arranged for Congregational Schola, Soprano (S), Alto (A), Tenor (T), Bass (B), and Organ. The key signature is one flat (B-flat), and the time signature is common time (C). The score is divided into two systems of music.

System 1: The Congregational Schola part begins with a mp dynamic. The vocal parts (S, A, T, B) also begin with a mp dynamic. The Organ part begins with a p dynamic and a legato marking. The lyrics for the first system are: "Blessed are those who mourn, for they shall be con - soled."

System 2: This system continues the lyrics: "Blessed are those who hun - ger and thirst for right-eous-ness, for they shall have thier fill." The dynamics for the vocal parts and Organ are marked as mf and mp respectively. There are three-measure rests (marked with a '3') at the beginning of the vocal lines in this system.

The second system of the musical score continues the vocal line and organ accompaniment. It begins with a measure rest of 4 measures, indicated by a '4' above the staff. The lyrics 'has made a me-mo-ri - al of his won - ders; he gives food to those who fear him.' are written below the vocal staff. The organ accompaniment continues with a similar texture.

The musical score is set in a key with one flat (B-flat) and a common time signature. The vocal line is written on a single staff with a treble clef. The organ accompaniment is written on two staves (treble and bass clefs) with a grand staff bracket on the left. The tempo/mood is indicated as 'Tranquillo ma con moto'. The lyrics are: 'The earth is re - plete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.' The organ part includes the instruction 'legato sempre' and features a triplet of eighth notes in the right hand at the beginning of the second system.

Tranquil, Hopeful

The musical score is arranged in four systems. The first system includes Congregation/Schola, Soprano/Alto, Tenor/Bass, and Organ parts. The lyrics are: "Re - mem - ber your word to your ser - vant, O Lord,". The second system continues the lyrics: "by which you have giv - en me hope. This is my com - fort when I am brought low." The score includes dynamic markings such as mf, f, mp, and p, along with crescendo and decrescendo hairpins. The organ part features a melodic line in the right hand and a harmonic accompaniment in the left hand.
